

ASO webinar

COVID-19 Obesity: A Public Health Perspective

AGENDA

Date: 30th July 2020

Time	Duration (Minutes)	Topic	Faculty
06.00- 06.05 PM	05	Welcome & Introduction	ASO (Kath Roberts/Maria Bryant)
06.05-06.15 PM	10	The Association Between Obesity and COVID-19	Paul Niblett - Deputy Head of Population Health Analysis, Public Health England
06:15-06:25 PM	10	The impact of COVID-19 on weight management service provision in England	Jamie Blackshaw - Team Leader: Obesity and Healthy Weight, Health and Wellbeing, Public Health England Louisa Ells – Professor of Obesity at Leeds Beckett University
06.25 -06.35 PM	10	Lived experiences of the impact of shielding during the peak of the COVID-19 pandemic: A call for action	Ken Clare -Advocate for people living with Obesity, ASO patient representative Trustee, European Coalition for People living with Obesity, Director of Bariatric and Metabolic Surgery Services for Obesity UK
06.35 -06.45 PM	10	The need for urgent action to reduce widening inequalities in childhood obesity	Harry Rutter – University of Bath, Member, Strategic Council for the All-Party Parliamentary Group on Obesity
06:45-06:55 PM	10	Campaigning children's rights, parent power and government action to improve the food environments: Short-term support and long-term impact	Barbara Crowther – Children's Food Campaign
07:00-07:25	25	Panel discuss: What are the short and long term public health policy priorities to prevent and treat obesity? Reflections on new government announcement on obesity	Susan Jebb (Chair) – Professor of Diet and Population Health at the University of Oxford All speakers (above)
07:25-07:30	05	Summary and close	ASO (Kath Roberts/Maria Bryant)

Novo Nordisk has provided sponsorship to the Association for the Study of Obesity (ASO) to fully fund all costs for the development of this webinar, including creation, organisation, production and administration. Novo Nordisk has had no influence on the content and full editorial control remains the sole responsibility of ASO.